CLEMENT SHARPE (1888--1938)
TRADESMAN'S DEATH
Mr. Clement R. Sharpe of Ampthill
Mr. Clement Richard Sharpe, a prominent Ampthill business man, died in a Bedford hospital on Thursday, after a recent operation. Mr. Sharpe was the fourth son of the late Mr. W.T. Sharpe and Mrs. Helen Sharpe of Ampthill. His grandfather established the well-known building and decorating business now trading as W.T. Sharpe Ltd., over a hundred years ago.
Mr. Clement Sharpe, who lived with his wife and two daughters (Doreen and Pauline) at 68 Dunstable Street, Ampthill, was taken ill last Friday night and rushed to hospital. A few hours before feeling ill, Mr. Sharpe was attending to the clerical duties of the business in which he was the secretary.
Mr. Sharpe had, however, been in failing health for the past year. He was an old Bedford Modernian, and was fifty years of age. He served with a Bedfordshire Battalion in the last war and ultimately received his commission in the Royal Flying Corps. In local sporting circles, he will be remembered as a fine footballer, and for several seasons he played in the forward line of the old Ampthill Town Football Club. He was also a member of the Ampthill Tennis Club, and his work for the British Legion, for which he was secretary of the Ampthill branch for several years, will also be remembered. Much sympathy is felt for the widow and daughters, his aged mother, and also his four brothers and sister.

Sharpe Ltd., followed the family mourners to the church, and also followed the funeral cars to the cemetery.

   Cambs, England..

Notes for DOREEN MARGARET SHARPE:
[Wilkin.ftw]

   My husband, Martin John Wilkin, has done extensive research to prepare family trees of his family (Wilkin and Taylor) and my family (Sharpe and Crosley). During the research on my side certain events seemed of particular interest to me and I decided to put these into print..

   I had always known that my Mother, Hester Margaret, was born in India but now find from further research that my Grandmother, Ella Blanche, was also born in India.
Her Father was William Gordon Lynch Cotton. He was a Water Engineer with the Public Works Department in India (see Photographs #1, 2, & 3). It appears that my Grandmother was sent to England for her education (see Photograph #4 - Prospectus of a boarding school for children whose parents were in India).

My Grandfather, Herbert Charles Crosley, was born in England and attended Dulwich College, London (see photograph # 6.of him age 15 when a pupil there). He went to India about 1885. He opened up the Okayti Tea Estate (See Photo #13, 14 &15) in 1889, the same year he married my Grandmother, Ella Cotton. They started off married life in a tent but later photographs show the bungalow (Photograph #17) also the dining room (Photograph #18 and 19) ) As manager of the Tea Estate my Grandfather was able to give his family a good life. My Mother, Hester Margaret, and her two sisters, Ivy and Eileen, and two brothers, were all born at Okayti, Darjeeling.

My Grandfather died in 1905 (see Photograph # 26....) and my Grandmother and three daughters returned to England to live at Sandhurst Villas, Ampthill, Bedfordshire, for a short time. I believe, with the death of my Grandfather, finances were low. My Mother was, I think, given secretarial training in London. My Aunt Ivy was quite an accomplished pianist and was encouraged in her music studies by Uncle Jack who provided a piano for her at some stage. She went to a convent school in Belgium, possibly because of her musical interest. She came back from Belgium by a somewhat adventurous route at the beginning of World War I and rejoined her family who were then living in Ealing. She worked at the Bank of England sorting out and dealing with 'dud' bank notes. Aunt Eileen went to a boarding school, St. Annes near Redhill, on the strength of a nomination by the Duchess of Bedford (the "Flying Duchess") who was an old friend of her Mother. Later she went to a domestic training college near Birmingham and then worked as a governess.

A tape made in 1976 by Aunt Eileen for her grandsons, Stephen and Robin, is especially interesting and worth listening to as it gives a great insight to the lives of the three sisters in India, especially at Christmastime.

The family tree shows that my Mother, Hester Margaret, also had 2 brothers but little is mentioned of them - we believe one died as a baby and the other at the age of two.

Most of the photographs of the family in India were probably taken by my Grandmother’s brother, Hugh Gordon Cotton, who was the Manager of the Ghatia Tea Estate, Jalpaiguri, Bengal.

My Mother must have returned to Ampthill because she met and married my Father, Clement Richard Sharpe, in 1915.

MARTIN JOHN WILKIN (1927 - )

The writer of this Family History is myself Martin John Wilkin (called John), son of James Martin and Susan Hannah Wilkin and I was born on Dec 30th 1927 at Primrose Hill Farm, Pymoor, Near Ely, Cambs, England.

I was born in a small Bungalow built by my father on Primrose Hill Farm and lived there for a few years until the large farmhouse was demolished and a new home constructed and we all moved into the new house. In 1938 Primrose Hill Farm farm was sold to Mr Claud Starling and we moved to Clacton on Sea where my father purchased Cooks Green Farm in Little Clacton in partnership with his cousin Bertrand Harris. Bertrand did not partake in the actual farming and Dad did farm the land until 1940 when the farm was leased to a Mr Johnson and the family moved back to Haddenham where Dad farmed Frog Hall Farm in Aldreth and also some land in Hillrow, Haddenham which had been left to him by Constance Louisa Porter together with the house we lived in called "Highfield House". In 1945 at the end of the war in Europe we moved back to Clacton on Sea.

I attended school in Pymore for five years, the Pathfields School in Clacton on Sea for two years and The Kings' School in Ely at the Cathedral for five years until 1945. In 1945 I attended the Loughborough College of Engineering for three years and graduated in Civil Engineering in 1948. Then I served my National Service in the Royal Engineers until 1950 when I started my working career.

Subsequently I worked for various contractors in Aylsham in Norfolk, Cheltenham in Gloucestershire, Bath in Somerset, Banbury in Oxfordshire and Colchester in Essex. In 1955 I emigrated to Canada and was in Leamington Ontario initially and then moved to Windsor where I still live.
